

Scripture Typer — School Pilot Plan

For Christian schools · scripturetyper.com/schools

Scripture Typer is an adaptive touch-typing curriculum with 108 lessons of per-key instruction that adjusts to each student, built on Scripture. This is how a school pilot runs.

HOW IT RUNS IN YOUR CLASSROOM

- Sign-in: students use their existing school Google accounts (“Sign in with Google”). Works on school devices in class and from home, with no passwords to manage. Other sign-in options available.
- Home practice included: every student can practice from home at no extra cost.
- Fits your schedule: lessons work in 10–15 minute blocks; students pick up exactly where they left off.
- Scripture content: KJV, Berean Standard Bible, and World English Bible available. No ads, ever.

WHAT WE SET UP FOR YOU

- We do the onboarding: send us your class list as a CSV (with a class column) and we load every student into the right class. Import never deletes existing students or their progress, and at year end students roll into their new classes with progress intact.
- Teacher dashboard: class-by-class roster sortable by first or last name — last practiced, current lesson, and who needs help, at a glance. Printable per-student semester reports.
- Testing: assign a test to a class or let students request one when ready; speed and accuracy results appear in your dashboard so grading stays in your hands.
